The People's Popular Paper Is a Record-Breaker.

The circulation of The Times, which has shown such a steady and wonderful growth, once more clearly evinces the fact that it is the paper of the masses and that it fills a long-needed requirement in thousands of Washington homes.

The past week has been an especially notable one. It has not only proved conclusively that the people want The Times, but that they want it today, tomorrow and all the time; this fact is more clearly established since a large proportion of the names added to the great army of Times readers have become regular subscribers and shows beyond a shadow of doubt that, no matter what scheme may be adopted by its contemporaries to boiste up declining circulations, The Times will continue to grow. The iruth must now be manifest to all that the idea of a morning and evening edition of a daily paper is a popular and fetching one and when to this is added the fact that the price for this splendid service is but fifty cents a month, including a magnificent twenty-page Sunday edition 'tis no wonder that The Times has reached

"THE COMMUNISM OF PELF." country's prosperity by its money-bags, the

This sentiment has especially grown during the present administration. President Cleveland was elected more for his avowed antagonism to the "communism of pelf' than for any other reason. The Democratic party pledged itself to declare war on trusts and relieve the public of its burden of extortionate prices. But when placed in power, instead of carrying out its principles of Democracy President Cieveland still further fortified the rule of combines. Today the public is helpless in the hands of the hundreds of trusts that control our industries, and to cap the climax, all the great railroad sys- this instance the china is already broken.

Bad President Cleveland and the Fiftythird Congress vigorously enforced Demo cratic principles, and made this an adminis tration of the people, the political situation would be different, but it now looks as if it would be a long time before either he or his party will again be given opportunity to make "public office a public trust."

TYPHOID SCARE FIASCO.

Now that the typhoid scare has subsided, it might be well to look into its origin and ascertain the reason why Washington was published throughout the country as being afflicted with a typhoid epidemic.

The low stage of water caused more typhoid than usual. This was true of every community, but this city was the only one where a $7,000,000 bond deal was desired by a few speculators; therefore, no other community raised the bue and cry of an epidemic to frighten the public into agreeing to the sale of bonds for an alleged sewer improvement as a possible prevention against further typhold scares.

On Friday evening, October 4, eleven nembers of the board of trade met and resolved that typhoid was prevalent, and that steps should be taken to arrest its progress. A committee was appointed, with the present president of the board, Mr. S. C. Woodward, at the head, to wait on the Commissioners and inform them of the bad condition of our sewers and the necessity of a bond issue to improve and extend them.

This step was opportune, inasmuch as the Commissioners were at that time pregress, and the information that a typhoid epidenic was due to bad drainage would undoubtedly influence the passage of the $7.000,000 bond bill.

But unfortunately for the little scheme the medical fraternity, the health officer and The Times did not fall in with the idea that our National Capital should be traduced to further the interests of speculators, and prompt measures were adopted for denying the report telegraphed abroad. The nedical fraternity was a unit in declaring that typhoid did not exist to any great extent; the health officer vigorously announced that there was little if any more typhoid than in previous years; The Times gave publicity to these statements and the plot to influence both Congress and the public in favor of the bond deal fell through. It must not be expected, however, that he scheme to induce Congress to bond the District to promote private interests will be abandoned. The election of the present president of the board of trade is evidence that no effort will be spared to increase our public debt to the extent of more than $7,000,000. His past cospection with the bond bill is sufficient proof of this fact, and while no opposition should be made to the expenditure of funds for necessary sewer improvements, all attempts to use public money for the improvement of private real estate should be thwarted.

TO THE BREAKING POINT.

If the news of the massacre of Christian ad Armenian teachers in Asia Minor by the Kurds is confirmed it will probably prove to be the bair that breaks the camel's back. It will give flagrant proof of either the inability or unwillingness of the Porte to put a stop to the outrages perpetrated by these semi-barbarous fauntes. In either case the powers will hardly wait for another break to occur before they proceed to take charge of the affairs of the Turkish Empire.

The patience of the whole civilized world is sorely tried by these wholesale murders thinly disguised under the pretense of attempts to suppress Armenian revolts. No proofs have been given by the Turkish government that it is sincere in its promises to suppress these outrages and restore order. There might be good reason for 35,290 store order. There might be good reason for 35,574 forbearance if any disposition were shown interest of humanity and good govern nent, but its policy has been and contin to be shifty, treacherous, feeble and vacil

Chief Justice Bingham.

The vexed question that has been agitating the good people of St. Mark's Parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church since the election of vestrymen and wardens on last Easter Monday and before, and which reached the courts for decision as to the authority of the competing parish officials, was heard upon the submitted briefs of counsel by Chief Jostice Bingham in equity court No. 1 this morning.

The previous history in this celebrated case has appeared in The Taues from time to time since the inception of the difficulty.

Those who are interested in the contention as complainants and defendants, respectively, do not embrace the entire vestry, but the issue is as to the alleged election of two wardens and four vestrymen, as follows: John P. Torbert and William T. Kent, wardens, and John R. Keech, Ira H. Johannes, Frederick R. Wallace and Robert J. Walker, vestrymen. Those who appear as defendants are: Joseph P. Bennett, Samuel B. Roane, Charles B. Fonda, Edwin K. Landy, Adam Gaddis, Richard J. Earnshaw and William S. Nicholson.

The complainants were represented by Attorneys W. A. Meloy and H. E. Davis; the defendants by Attorneys J. Walter

The complainants were represented by Attorneys W. A. Meloy and H. E. Davis; the defendants by Attorneys J. Walter Cooksey and Warren R. Choate. ITEMS IN THE PETITION.

TIEMS IN THE PETITION.

The bill of complaint concludes with asking that the court shall decree—
First. That derendant, William S. Nicholson, was not on the day of the last election in St. Mark's parish qualified according to law to be elected a vestryman.

Second. That by a majorny of the votes of the legally qualified voters present and voting at the election on Easter Monday, 1896, the complainants, John P. Torbert and William T. Kent, were elected to be the church wardens, and the complainants, John R. Keech, Ira H. Johannes, Frederick S. Wallace, and Robert J. Walker, and each of them were elected vestrymen.

Third, That said complainants do now constitute the legally elected and qualified vestry of St. Mark's parish.

Fourth, That the said defendants be forever enjoined and restrained from exercising and from asserting any rights as the vestry, or as members of the vestry, of St. Mark's parish by virtue of any pretended election.

Fifth, that they be required to discover.

St. Mark's parish by virtue of any pretended election.

Fifth, that they be required to discover,
account for, and pay over to complainants all moneys which have been taken or received by them or either of them as offerings of the parishoners or otherwise in any way whatsoever for the use or benefit of said parish, and to surrender, return, and deliver to complainants all books, plates, personal and real property belonging to said parish which they or either of them may have.

In the briefs submitted by coansel for both sides, each being voluntinous, the rose was thoroughly exhausted, the defense in general denying the averments introduced by complainants and petition ing for a decision under which the present board of officers may be legalized and their acts indorsed.

public is fast being converted to the belief that Government control of the great factors in the business world is a necessity.
